

The Jubilee

Adults waltz around with their heads held high,
Kids run with a cheerful smile,
Birds watch Union Jack colours rushing around the trees.
As we cheer "Long live The Queen!"

The kites soar high above our heads,
The sun shines through the gazebo windows,
The flags flutter in the wind like a butterfly on a summer's day.
As we cheer "Long live The Queen!"

The crowd shouts as the rubber duck race begins,
The current pulls them down to the finish line,
We watch intently.
As we cheer "Long live The Queen!"

"Long live The Queen!"
