

Jubilee Celebration

The nation comes together,
In the bright, breezy, British weather.

The sun beams shine like lemon drops,
Filtering through the chimney tops.

Strung on all the shops and homes,
Red, white, blue flags, made or loaned

Flying, fluttering in the sun....
The Jubilee celebrations have begun!

Familiar images of Queen Elizabeth all around,
We sing the national anthem with joyous sound.

The famous cream teas are awaiting,
Whilst elaborate crown-shaped cakes are plating.

What a lovely Jubilee celebration,
For our loyal Queen and the nation!
